The Champagne Ardenne region

Paris-Vatry airport is located in the heart of the Champagne Region, 150km to the east of Paris. Steeped in history and culture, and home to the vineyards of the world-famous wine, Champagne offers a sparkling blend of heritage and nature that will entice and enchant you. The majestic city of Reims, where a long line of French kings were crowned, is renowned for its magnificent gothic cathedral, one of 4 UNESCO world heritage sites, and prestigious champagne houses. Other towns include Epernay, with its famed Avenue of Champagne, Châlons-en-Champagne, criss-crossed with rivers and parks, and medieval Troyes with its half timbered houses and narrow, paved streets. Outside the towns, the vineyards and fields are dotted with pretty villages offering many places of interest such as a champagne museum housed in a lighthouse, a tree-top champagne bar, the artist studio of Renoir, the family home of Charles de Gaulle and a visitors' centre dedicated to the great General. For history-lovers, the impressive medieval fortress of Sedan in the Ardennes is the largest of its kind in Europe, and the many sites connected to the Great War include battlefields, trenches, museums and memorials. To relax and rejuvenate, take your pick from a wide choice of outdoor leisure activities.

Paris

Artist, businessman or tourist, whether you come with your lover or family, Paris is always great for a good break. Notre Dame, the Louvre, the Invalides, Place de la Concorde, the Arc de Triomphe, the Opera, the Sacred Heart in Montmartre... the greatest attractions of Paris continue to fuel the myth. Add to this the Paris of Parisians, the charming assets of the city such as cafés, bistros, boutiques, art galleries, theatres, arcades, parks... the capital still remains "bourgeois bohemian" in his heart, and keep living throughout the year thanks to the numerous events as the seasons go by.

The capital of France has always been regarded as one of the most romantic cities in the world. Famous heritage sites, such as the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre, Notre Dame Cathedral or the Arc de Triomphe, blend with the buzz of cafés, bistros, boutiques, art galleries, arcades and parks. The capital still remains 'bourgeois bohemian' in character with many different events and festivals punctuating the year.

The Seine-et-Marne, the East of Paris

The Seine-et-Marne, located less than 30 minutes from the East of Paris, is the largest department in the Ile-de-France region, and home to Disneyland® Paris. Within a short drive, an extraordinary medieval heritage, remarkable natural sites, astonishing châteaux and castles await you! Seine-et-Marne is an ideal destination for pleasant escapades, with unsuspected tourist delights such as the two UNESCO sites: the medieval city of Provins and the Fontainebleau château. It encompasses other exceptional sites such as Vaux le Vicomte château that was voted France's most beautiful private one, the internationally renowned painter's villages of Barbizon and Moret-sur-Loing, Meaux with its Episcopal city and its Museum of the Great War, Europe's largest big-cat park, Europe's leading motor sports centre, stylish shopping outlets at La Vallée Village, or one of Europe's most amazing UNESCO biosphere reserves in Fontainebleau forest.

Disneyland® Paris celebrates its 20th anniversary!

Disney's biggest ever party will transform celebrations forever, transporting you and all your favourite Characters to a world shimmering in new magic, new lights and new colours.

Dream with your Eyes Open!

Disneyland® Park takes you on a journey into 5 fantastic worlds filled with dreams, fun, thrills and knee-knocking action brought to you by 40 attractions and shows, parades, à la carte and counter-service restaurants as well as an extensive choice of enchanting boutiques.

Into Walt Disney Studios® Park, spectacular attractions and brand-new shows take you into the world of Film,

Television and Cartoons. Get ready to become a movie star, if only for a short while, as you discover the film sets, special effects and secrets of the silver screen!

Come taste magical evenings!

Shopping, dining, cinemas, dancing and live entertainment for the whole family. Find out why the magic truly never stops at Disney Village.

THE CITIES

Châlons en-Champagne

Châlons en-Champagne is a peaceful and pleasant town with attractive squares lined with cafés and half-timbered houses and three well-kept parks, ideal for strolling.

Criss-crossed with rivers and canals, this 'Little Venice' can also be visited by boat.

Internet: www.chalons-tourisme.com

Epernay

In the heart of the vineyard, Epernay is THE Capital of Champagne. The famous 'Avenue of Champagne' is lined with beautiful 19th century mansions and prestigious champagne houses such as Moët & Chandon, Mercier, Perrier Jouët and De Castellane. Underground, over 100km of cellars house millions of bottles of champagne.

Internet: www.ot-epernay.fr

More Info: Photos © M. Joylot

Fontainebleau

Fontainebleau has many reasons to be famous with its royal Château, huge forest, international climbing/bouldering spots and unique equestrian facilities. In all cases, the town is a lively destination with a good gastronomy and lifestyle.

Internet: www.fontainebleau-tourisme.com

Meaux

Famous today for Brie cheese and mustard, Meaux's rich medieval past is perpetuated by the magnificent Saint Etienne gothic cathedral and the Episcopal City. The town was the scene of fierce fighting during the battle of the Marne in the First World War, with a dedicated Museum of the Great War.

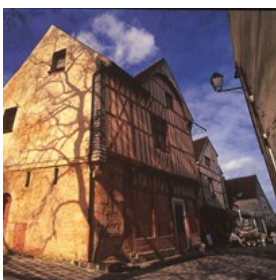

Internet: www.tourisme-paysdemeaux.fr

Melun

Crossed by the river Seine, Melun is popular with yachtsmen and passenger vessels. A boat ride along the river will allow you to admire the picturesque landscapes, authentic villages and beautiful 19th century houses from the water. The heart of the old town is ideal for taking a stroll.

Internet: www.ville-melun.fr

Provins

Former capital of the Counts of Champagne, the bustling atmosphere of the Champagne Fairs can still be felt behind Provins' imposing ramparts. Fortifications, a keep, churches, underground tunnels, ancient houses – this exceptional heritage has been classed by UNESCO as a world heritage site.

Internet: www.provins.net

Reims

At the foot of the champagne vineyard, the coronation city of Reims is renowned for its magnificent gothic cathedral, one of four UNESCO world heritage sites. The town is also world famous for the many champagne houses here such as Mumm, Taittinger and Veuve Clicquot. A visit of their cellars is a magical moment for visitors.

Internet: www.reims-tourisme.com

Troyes

Historic capital of Champagne until the French Revolution, the medieval centre of Troyes is famed for its beautifully restored half-timbered buildings, narrow streets and many churches. Today, this ancient medieval city has also become the city of fashion with the largest centre of factory outlet shops in Europe.

DO & SEE

Wine Tourism

Many people come to the region to follow the champagne trail – from the prestigious champagne houses of Reims and Epernay, follow the sign-posted

Champagne Tourist Route through vineyards and villages, stopping off at the Museum of the Vine at the Lighthouse of Verzenay for an overview, and at one of the many local producers of champagne for a personalised tour and tasting.

Other places to taste include C Comme..., a champagne bar at Epernay with over 400 different kinds of champagne, or for an original location try the Perchingbar, a champagne bar up a tree in the forest behind Verzy! To taste the champagne made further south in the Aube vineyards, stop off at the beautiful stone village of Les Riceys or for the ultimate pilgrimage for lovers of champagne, visit the village of Hautvillers home of the 'Father of Champagne', monk Dom Pérignon.

Artists Villages

Flooded with light, the village of Barbizon has inspired the greatest painters and gave life to the Impressionism trend.

On the edge of the Fontainebleau forest, take the time to immerse yourself in the ambiance of this place of creation that attracted Millet, Corot, Daubigny and Rousseau. The artist Renoir was equally inspired by this region and set up home in Essoyes, the village of his wife. Today you can visit the great painter's studio and a visitors' centre dedicated to the Renoir family.
