The city of Liverpool is renowned worldwide for its music, football, architecture and maritime heritage. However, the city has moved on since the happy days of the Beatles in the 1960's, and the town was European Capital of Culture in 2008.' It is a prestigious award which put Liverpool back on the map as a great European city to visit.

THE CITY

The city of Liverpool has been much rejuvenated in recent years and it boasts many impressive sightings and a stunning refurbished waterfront. The city is full of great architecture which shows the wealth and civic pride of the area. However, what makes Liverpool so special is the friendliness of the locals, better known as 'Liverpudlians' or 'Scousers'. They are a bold and brash bunch of people and are instantly recognized by their strong northern accent.

SHOPPING

Shopping in Liverpool is a great experience as most of the shops are located near the main streets in Williamson Square. However, there are a couple of very good side streets which house the more unusual boutiques and the shops unique to Liverpool as well. The Liverpoolians are extremely style-conscious and also very big on brand names. It is therefore natural to find most high-end shops having at least one outlet in the city.

The Cavern Designer centre in Mathew Square is a great place to find good deals on popular clothing brands. The shopping centre sells kids' clothes, jewellery, and everything else and brings the big names together, the most prominent shop being the Vivienne Westwood boutique. The shopping centres in Clayton Square and St. Johns shopping centre are also worth a visit, and just outside Liverpool is one of Europe's largest designer outlets, Cheshire Oaks.

The Albert Dock also offers very trendy shops and has everything from clothing to furniture stores. If you need something different, you will need to head for Chinatown. Every Sunday they have a large Chinese market there that sells everything from cooking pots to fresh meat sausages.

Liverpool ONE

This is a huge 1.65 million sq ft. of shopping and leisure with 160 shops, more than 20 bars and restaurants, 14 screen cinema and a 5 acre park. Airport

Liverpool John Lennon Airport is situated 7 miles southeast of the City centre. Buses depart into town every 20 minutes on weekdays and every 30 minutes on weekends, the journey takes about 45 minutes.

Internet: www.liverpooljohnlennonairport.com

Public transport

Many of the city's main attractions are within easy reach from the town centre so many visitors opt to bring a comfortable pair of shoes and a road map and go exploring by foot. Public transport runs frequently throughout the day and a small number of bus services operate at night. The city's two bus stations are on Roe Street and Paradise Street, closer to town centre. There is also an underground system that operates between Liverpool's four main train stations (Lime Street, Central Station, James Street and Moorfields).

Internet: www.merseytravel.gov.uk

Taxi

There are many taxi ranks throughout the city including at all the major train and bus stations. They can also be hailed anywhere on the street.
