THE ISLAND

Rhodes, the largest of the Dodecanese islands, is not an ordinary holiday resort but a cosmopolitan place with an international reputation. The charming mediaeval town, the sophisticated Lindos, the irresistible valley of the butterflies, the high-quality lifestyle and the long golden sand beaches, make the days and nights in the island unforgettable.

Rhodes is a medieval and modern combination which impresses and fascinates visitors. At the homonymous capital of Rhodes, the romantic medieval Old Town holds amazing historical buildings, and the modern New Town also has its archaeological findings. Millions of tourists every year walk through the narrow streets of the Old Town to visit the museums, the churches and the fortress walls, following the steps of the knights.

Together with intensive nightlife in Faliraki, crystal water and warm locals, the island makes for a great choice in holiday!
