Pisa is strategically located in the central part of Italy. It is only 12 km from the Ligurian Sea, 20 km from the harbour of Livorno and the ferries heading to the Elba Island, Sardinia and Corsica and 80 km from Florence. This city is closely associated with the Leaning Tower. But Pisa also preserves, with the whole complex of Piazza dei Miracoli - cultural patrimony of all humanity - and its medieval centre, numerous masterpieces of architecture and medieval history. The area around Pisa is also excellent for farm-holidays, trekking, beaches and water sports on the Versilian coast.

THE CITY

You say Pisa, and you immediately think of the Leaning Tower, one of the most famous monuments in the world. But Pisa is not just its tower - the city also boasts the extraordinary complex of buildings known as the Piazza dei Miracoli, with its magnificent cathedral and baptistery. Step away from the tower and you'll discover the old town with palaces from Renaissance, medieval tower-houses, churches in Romanesque and Gothic style, narrow pebbled streets leading to the River Arno. Enjoy the scenery of the lungarni (embankments), or step into the Botanic Gardens (one of the oldest in Europe, recently restored).

Pisa was the birthplace of Gailileo Galilei and hosts an important university, founded in 1338, and the Scuola Normal Superiore, opened in 1813. As an Etruscan settlement and a Roman town, Pisa formed part of the Longobardo Kingdom, and then of the Carolingio Empire before becoming part of Italy after 1861. The medieval period coincided with the peak of Pisa's economic and political power. Pisa was one of the four Italian coastal republics until it was annexed to the Ducato of Tuscany in 1406.

Pisa is the starting point to discover the province, with its unspoilt and well-preserved landscape. Do not miss a visit to Volterra (65 km), on the way to San Gimignano, or to San Miniato (50 km) on the way to Florence.

DO & SEE

The boat service in Pisa (operating from April to October) will let you enjoy the architectural scenery of the embankments or the natural beauty of the nearby San Rossore Regional Park. In the Natural Park lies the racecourse—the gallop season goes from October to March.

Pisa celebrates traditional events such as the fascinating "Luminara," the historical Regatta on the Arno and the contest "Gioco del Ponte" in June. An alternative is the Festival of International Sacred Music, "Anima Mundi," taking place in September - October in the Cathedral and Monumental Cemetery.

Torre Pendente (The Leaning Tower)

The Tower of Pisa is the bell tower of the Cathedral. Its construction began in 1173 and continued for over two centuries. It has a lean of 5,4 metres. This is today the famous landmark of Pisa and a "must" visiting the city.

Address: Piazza Arcivescovado, 6, Pisa

Pisa Battistero

Pisa Battistero is located in conjunction with Pisa Doumo. This Baptistery is the largest one in the whole of Italy and is dated to 12th century. Make your visit in the early morning to experience the amazing acoustics and echoes.

Address: Piazza Duomo, Pisa

Camposanto (Holy Yard)

The Italian word "camposanto" (holy yard) - which is synonym of 'cemetery' - was first used with reference to this Pisan building. According to the legend, it contained soil which was seen as miraculous due to its origins in the Holy Land.

Address: Piazza dei Miracoli, Pisa

Museo dell'Opera del Duomo (Cathedral Museum)

This museum opened in 1986 to focus on the art and sculptures of Pisa. Today it contains works which previously adorned the buildings in the Piazza dei Miracoli.

Piazza dei Cavalieri

The beautiful Piazza dei Cavalieri was the political centre of the Pisan Republic. During the 16th century, it was radically transformed by Giorgio Vasari and became the seat of the new military order of the Knights of St. Stephen. The square is dominated by the Palazzo della Carovana, whose façade is completely covered in graffiti, and today hosts the Scuola Normale Superiore, founded by Napoleon in 1810.

Address: Piazza dei Cavalieri, Pisa

Orto Botanico

The Botanical Garden was established in 1544 as the first university botanical garden in Europe, and entrusted to the famous botanist Luca Ghini. The garden is divided into sections containing the botanical school, gardens, ponds, greenhouses, and various buildings. Major collections include herb gardens and arboreta, as well as the old botany institute of late 16th century, with a façade ornamented with sea-shells.

CAFES

Coffee is as important as pasta for the Italians. If you want to act like a local ordering your coffee there are some unwritten rules you should keep in mind.

- Cappuccino, Caffe latte or any other kind of coffee based on milk should only be drunk in the mornings.
- When you order an espresso, don't use the word espresso which actually just is a technical phrase. Ask the barista for simply "un caffè".
- And last but not least, when ordering "un caffè" you don't sit down. Stand at the bar and swallow your coffee on foot.

Either you feel like blending in or acting like a true tourist, sitting down at a table, there are plenty of cafés to choose from in Pisa.

Salza

Salza opened in 1926, and is the oldest and maybe the best cake shop in Pisa, offering a very good choice of pastries, chocolate and ice cream. BARS & NIGHTLIFE

Photo: Alpha

Before going to dinner, don't miss the apéritivo bars (which are usually open 18.30-21.30). The early-evening drink has become a must in Italy for both young and old people. It's also an easy way to meet people. The real place for nightlife is on the Versilia coast, just 10 km from the city, the most famous discos are in Viareggio or Forte dei Marmi. Pisa does however boast some decent places to listen to live music and for dancing.

Galileo Galilei International Airport

Pisa International Airport "Galilei" is located only 1 km from Pisa Centrale Railway Station and the town centre. The airport has a railway terminal outside the departure hall. Passengers can buy railway tickets at the information office (check-in hall). Direct railway lines connect the airport to Florence and Pisa Centrale Station. It takes only 5 minutes to reach Pisa city centre by train and the ticket costs €1.40 for a one-way journey.

CPT (Compagnia Pisana Trasporti) connects the Airport to Pisa town centre every 10 minutes by LAM bus marked in red colour. The bus terminus lies outside the Departure area. The LAM bus crosses the Arno river over Ponte Solferino, drives to the Miracles' Square and the Leaning Tower with stops at Pisa Centrale Railway Station, Piazza Vittorio Emanuele, Riversides and hospital. A one way ticket costs €1 and is valid for one hour. Remember that you have to buy the ticket before boarding and then validate it on the vehicle.

There are also several taxis outside the terminal and from the airport to the city centre the fare starts at €6.

Public Transport

Pisa is a small city, hence the best way to see it is on foot. The company which operates Pisa's local transport system is CPT (Compagnia Pisana Trasporti) and its information office is in Piazza S. Antonio, 1.

A bus ticket is valid for one hour and you can buy it either before boarding the bus or from the driver. It is cheapest to buy it in advance though. You always have to validate the ticket on board the vehicle. Tickets can be purchased at the airport, tobacconist's, newsagent's, at the bus terminal in Piazza S. Antonio (near Pisa Centrale Railway Station), where bus connections leave to the seaside (Marina di Pisa and Tirrenia), to the surroundings and to Pontedera.

Local, interregional, Intercity and Eurostar trains stop at Pisa Centrale Railway Station, connecting Pisa to the main Tuscan and Italian destinations. Train tickets are sold at the ticket office, for short tracks up to 20 km also at the newsagent's. Self-service ticket machines can also be found in the station.
