General Overview

Imaret is an intimate luxurious hospitality property, located within the homonymous historical monument. Built in 1817 right in the middle of the historical district of Kavala, in northern Greece, Imaret is an unexpected oasis of tranquillity and superior service. The monument is a rare example in Europe, a masterpiece of late Ottoman architecture. The variety of decoration, the quality of the delicate structures, the interaction between indoors and open spaces and the adaptability of the functional structures, create an original complex of high aesthetic and cultural value.

Accommodation

Imaret features, 4 rooms for single occupancy, 11 rooms for double occupancy and 11 suites, each unique in design and decoration. Each detail is a tribute to absolute luxury. Lavish materials, all specially made, changing from rich velvets and silks in the winter to elegant handmade French linen in summer, handmade oriental carpets covering waxed chestnut floors. A large variety of exclusive Bulgari toiletries and Molton Brown Candles, create Imaret's undisputably essential atmosphere.

Imaret's Relaxation Area

Anne Semonin invites you to discover L' Experience Anne Semonin, among a distinctive treatment collection with specific treatments and a five star service specially designed for the Imaret, to reflect the requirements of this luxury spa and its clients.

Imaret's Bar

With its rich oil paintings collection, leather armchairs and original antique pieces, this privileged spot overlooking the Bay, creates the most inviting atmosphere to relax and unwind next to the fireplace. Indulge yourself over an opulent selection of champagnes, malts and cognacs, accompanied by the hotels assorted flavours.

The Bar in the Mohamed Ali Gardens

The old mansion where Mohamed Ali the founder of modern Egypt was born, houses a museum of civil life of the 18th century. During summer time, the gardens of the house offer an exceptional scenic view of the sea, the city, and the surrounding hills for drinks and refreshments accompanied by classical music.

The Tea Room

Remember the ritual of an afternoon tea with the large selection of Fortnum and Mason's teas, in Imaret's intimate tea room. Breakfast, coffee and tea are served in original Haviland-Limoges porcelain named after the Empress Eugenie, to remind the romance of an Egyptian ruler and the European Empress.

The Gourmet Restaurant

The Restaurant situated underneath a glass facade in the winter and the open sky in summer allows the interior to blend unexpectedly with the luminosity of the Mediterranean scenery and it is an ideal setting for an intimate dinner. The fine seasonal dining is based on regional and European cuisine. Most salads, vegetables, fruits and herbs used in the menu, originate from Imaret's own organic garden.

Private Dining

At the first sign of summer, Imaret offers the possibility of private dining in the gardens and the terraces. A heaven of green, candle lights and the sounds of running water create a unique dining context. Private dining should be arranged 1 day before.
